

I was outraged to hear that Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election! This illegal and outrageous abuse of the prerogatives of the press is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we lose the access to free thought that makes a democracy function.

The license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
